

Dresden, Tennessee
July 7, 1952

To the Honorable Court of Weakley County
George C. Thomas, Judge

Gentlemen:

WHEREAS, certain special school districts in Weakley County are from time to time liquidating their bonded indebtedness, and,

WHEREAS, certain balances of revenue are by law turned over to the Weakley County Board of Education,

NOW, THEREFORE, be it resolved that the Weakley County Board of Education be authorized to revise its budget for the year 1952-53 to include such balances with the understanding that these balances are to be expended in their respective districts wherein the revenue was collected.

Respectfully submitted,

/s/ J. T. Miles
J. T. Miles, Supt.
Weakley County School
